LAUGHING AT DEIDRICK

Doctor Ikirt Writes a Scorching Letter

ABOUT THE MIGHTY CHIEFTAIN

Ikirt Was Out of Town and Never Offered a Free Silver Resolution—Deidrick's Soreness and Efforts to Get Even Result in His Expose.

When the local untitled held their convention on Thursday evening last and elected delegates to the county convention in Wellsville, their self-styled leader, J. C. Deidrick, caused the publication of some absurd statements in the Crisis and Pittsburgh papers. Principal among these was the story that Dr. Ikirt had offered a free silver resolution and that it had been voted down while the resolutions offered by Deidrick had gone through with a shout that widened the cracks in city hall until the old building tottered. Another statement was that Deidrick and C. A. Ferguson had been elected delegates to the state convention.

But murder will out. The local Democrats had evidently been given the tip. They refused to be interviewed. But when the editor of the Alliance Critic wrote to Dr. Ikirt he got a prompt reply. It was as follows:

EAST LIVERPOOL, July 26.
W. W. Roberts, Esq., Alliance.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to yours of yesterday, will say, I was out of town and did not see the article to which you refer until it was shown to me today. I also find a similar article in the Vindicator. Both articles convey a false impression as to what was understood that the subject was up before the little caucus that met here a few evenings since to select delegates to the county convention, and that the lines were then and there drawn as stated. The fact is that for years I have not attended these caucuses over half of the time, and was not in East Liverpool at all on last Wednesday night when the great blood and thunder contest took place. Not being in town I, of course, could not have been at the meeting. As far as known to me there was no previous arrangement on the part of any of the friends of silver to have action taken endorsing silver. The sensible Democrats here know that a caucus called to select delegates to a county convention is out of place in formulating business, the character of which (such as resolutions) belongs to the county and state conventions. It is also well known that a town or township primary, called expressly to select delegates to a county convention, has no right to usurp the rights of a county convention to select delegates to a state convention. It would seem those people who reported that blood and thunder convention (?) just drew on their imagination, if nothing more, as to what took place and then further just thought they would do the work of the county convention. That is all there is to it except Mr. J. C. Deidrick wanted to write a resolution for an advertisement.

It is amusing to note that if it was such a representative gathering and questions of great import were to be settled there and then, that it assumed the magnitude of a great county convention and the unanimous feeling was opposed to the restoration of silver, why did they not adopt a resolution declaring for the gold only standard? This you will observe was not attempted, but instead the resolution said they favored both gold and silver at a parity. They are perfectly safe in going that far, as that raised no issue, for the friends of silver claim that if silver was restored to the position it occupied previous to the act of demonetization in 1873, the parity or equality would soon be restored. The man that drafted that wide open resolution is simply in the position of the sinner astride of the top rider of the fence at campmeeting, when he became uncomfortable and slightly under conviction and somewhat under the influence of other spirits, he prayed first good God and then good devil because he did not know which side he might light on.

The other statement regarding the universal dollar, shows the author to be ignorant of the fact that every nation makes its own money and does not accept the coins of other nations at their face value.

Taken all together it is a very amusing performance, and the report of the proceedings sent out which the monetary plank adopted originated from the same influence shows a beautiful combination of the knave and the egotist.

Another Columbiana county Democrat writes the Critic editor and says: "It is indeed amusing to read the dispatches sent out from East Liverpool to the Pittsburgh papers. The fellow who sent out those dispatches has no more sense than to think that a township convention can select delegates to the state convention. Then too I wish you would read the resolution introduced in that convention about which that fellow blows. It has about as much sense in it as an oyster could evolve. That fellow does not know what he is talking about. He is ignorant of the whole subject of coinage." Deidrick composed the resolutions.

The attempt of Deidrick to vent his spleen upon Ikirt because Ikirt wouldn't recommend Deidrick's friend for postmaster is so apparent that Deidrick and his clique are the laughing stock of Columbiana county.

WORK OF THE YEAR.

What Judicial Statistics Show For the Year.

Lisbon, July 29.—The annual summing for the fiscal year ending July 1, shows that 11 indictments were carried over from last year, and 181 were found during the time covered by the report. Of the total 186 were disposed of leaving but five to go over. Counsel to defend those indicted cost $1,100. There were 31 divorce actions at the beginning of the year, and 41 were since filed, 21 by husbands and 51 by wives. Forty-six claims were allowed, alimony being given in three, and the custody of children in 12. No cases were dismissed, and the woman got the children every time. Civil judgments to the number of 139 were given, and 10 inquests were held. One was a homicide, three were suicides, and the cause of three was undecided.

DID NOT DISAPPEAR.

But the Neighbors Thought He Did and Were Anxious.

About a month ago Doctor Miller, who came here from Toronto at the request of the Hancock County Farmers' association some time since, left home suddenly, and when three weeks had elapsed and his farmer patients saw nothing of him, they made numerous remarks concerning it. The report was that his wife knew nothing of his whereabouts, but it was learned that she had never given anyone cause to believe that, unless it was by not directly informing them of his whereabouts.

Saturday the doctor returned home and all is joy on the West Virginia side of the river.

THEY SHOT CRAP.

And the Wellsville Police Captured an Even Dozen.

For some time past the Wellsville police have been watching Amos Herring's barber shop on Main street, Wellsville, and yesterday they descended upon the place and marched a dozen people to jail.

The crowd had been indulging in the fascinating game of crap, and did not know the police were near until Chief Warren and Officers Morgan and Johnson were right among them. Herring is a colored man and several of the players are old offenders in Wellsville. So far as was learned no Liverpool boys were captured.

WALKED AWAY WITH SHOES.

A Youth Paid For What He Had Stolen.

A boy who gave the name of Hubbard stole a pair of shoes at Williamson's on Saturday night, but was seen by A. G. Minehart, who gave the alarm. He was chased to Jackson street, and when he discovered the owners of the property after him he dropped them and shouted that he had stolen them. He was captured by David McClain on Jackson street, and said his uncle would pay the bill. Officer Jennings accompanied Mr. Williamson to the house, and the bill was paid.

CYCLE ACCIDENTS.

Riders Collide With a Buggy With the Usual Result.

While Bobby Jewell and a boy whom he did not know were riding around the curve near the camp ground station yesterday they collided with a buggy.

The shake up was a severe one and both riders were thrown from their wheels and slightly injured. The boy's hand was cut and his wheel bent, and Jewell, while he sustained no injuries of any account, had his wheel damaged considerably.

STOLE A SUIT.

A Bold Robbery in a Diamond Clothing Store.

When Joseph Brothers were hard at work on Saturday night a man who is well known to them stole a suit of clothes. Henry Joseph gave chase, and capturing the man compelled him to return the goods. There may be an arrest. It was a bold deed as no effort was made at concealment.

A COIL OF LIGHTNING

Encircled Motorman Nowell on Saturday Night.

BURNED HIS ARM AND LEG

And Played About the Car Awhile—Trolley Wire Down in Three Places and Two Cars Off the Track Made Work on the Electric Line—New Wire Needed.

If there ever was a time when the need of a new trolley wire on the electric line was shown it was on Saturday night and Sunday.

The frequent breaking of the wire during the week was followed by new breaks on Saturday night and yesterday, and to vary the monotony a street car jumped the track in time to leave the passengers walk a mile in a hurry. The first trouble occurred at East End about 7 o'clock. Motorman Supple's car was skimming gaily along when the wire broke just at Riley's orchard. The car stayed there because it could go no farther east. The power was off and Motorman Knapp's car laid at the Pennsylvania avenue curve almost an hour, while East End people who wanted to go to Wellsville or some point in the city proper had to walk to the scene of the accident. Nancy Hanks was brought out and the wire repaired as soon as possible.

Motorman Nowell was made aware about 11:30 o'clock Saturday evening that broken trolley wires are no respecter of persons. He was running car 16 and proceeding along the track by the "Driven-from-Home" cut when the usual flash which occurs when the trolley strikes the wire at a hanger was accompanied by a snap and the motorman realized a sensation similar to running a dozen pitchforks into a man's body at one and the same time. The wire came directly at him, burned his arm and leg severely, while he executed some fancy steps, and wrapped himself around the front of the car. Motorman Nowell reversed the power but that only made matters worse for the car, although it increased the distance between him and the playful wire. The other end became wrapped about the car and it was not until Nancy Hanks arrived that the coach was released. Passengers were transferred for more than an hour and the last car did not arrive at the power house until after 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

About noon yesterday the trolley on Motorman Stodgill's car gave the wire a vengeful swipe just west of the Jethro trestle and made two pieces of it. The motorman was not hurt but the car was unable to proceed and the power was off from that point to Wellsville.

At the same time Motorman Mike Fisher was having a most delightful time with car No. 3, one of the new coaches. The car had jumped the track at Walker. That left the motorman and passengers in a predicament. Stodgill and Fisher's cars had been approaching each other, and consequently there was no car between them. A space of about a mile intervened, and it was that part of the day when travel was heavy. It looked as if everybody would have to walk the intervening mile, but Nancy Hanks managed to get to Jethro without breaking the wire and while the broken wire was tied the trolleys were held down and the cars got through with a spurt, so that passengers could be transferred at Walker. No. 3 was put on the track after considerable work. This is the second new car that has jumped the track in two weeks, No. 1 being off the track in the same section a short time ago. The accidents of numbers one and three were due no doubt to the tightness of the new wheels on the track. The flange, when it becomes worn, is looser and gives little or no trouble.

Motorman Johnson's car was off the track at the power house late last night, the new switch being the cause of the trouble. The car was ready to be hauled into the barn, however, and no delay was occasioned.

This morning car No. 30 burned out both armatures at Walker, and passengers for this city came up in another car.

That a new wire is needed can not be disputed. The wire has been, as some of the motormen put it, burned off at cross arms by the flash which accompanies the trolley striking these points, or as Superintendent Andrews once said the wire has become crystallized. Motormen do not like to risk having their eyes burned out, neither do they care to lose their jobs, so the complaints from them are few, but the patrons of the line unite in saying "let us have a new wire."

Young Sprinters.

The wheelmen of East Liverpool are not to have all the glory and honor of sport on the turf. On Wednesday next "Hobble" Morrow, Tommy Manley, Edgar Crabbe, Curt Welch and George Little, young Americans of 10 or 12 years of age, will race on foot from the East End to Orr's, on Sixth street, for a handsome prize. The youngsters are very enthusiastic over the event, and have gone into active training. Look out for oceans of fun.

THIS MEANS BLOOD.

Shoes Versus Dry Goods at the West End Park.

There will be fun galore at the West End base ball grounds tomorrow evening, July 30, when the shoe merchants of East Liverpool will tackle the counter jumpers of the dry goods houses of the city. Willie Gass, the silent man, will do curves, in and out, up and down, and all over the diamond, while redhot straights and gentle drops will cause the multitude to bow down in admiration. Allison, for the tape measurers, is said to be a wonder in handling the sphere, and several of the leading league managers have their optics fastened upon the youth. He has what is known as the combination curve, which must be seen to be fully appreciated. It is a puzzler, and causes the batsmen to drop their willows and gaze on the pitcher in open-mouthed amazement and wonder. The game will be called at 6 o'clock, in order to accommodate a crowd of admirers who have expressed a desire to witness the game, and who cannot be present at an earlier hour. Swaney will act as receiver for the shoe end, while McClure will freeze on for the calico contingent. Following are the players and their positions:

Shoes.	Position.	Dry Goods.
Swaney.....	Catcher.....	McClure
Gass.....	Pitcher.....	Allison
Rence.....	Shortstop.....	Whit
Neal.....	First base.....	Dawson

DAVIDSON FELL

So the Race Was Easily Won by "Dude" Rowe

The race between "Dude" Rowe and "Cracker" Davidson, 10 year old class, was won Saturday afternoon by Rowe and he now wears the medal.

The youngsters started on their wheels at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Mulberry streets, East End, at 5 o'clock, and despite the muddy roads made good time until they reached a point just above the pumping station. The starter, Bobby Jewell, had accompanied the riders and advised them to ride one behind the other so as to keep from slipping in the mud. Young America is not easily influenced, however, and they rode side by side. Davidson attempted to pass Rowe as they neared the pump house and his wheel slipped sideways and threw him. He was struck in the abdomen by the handle bars and severely injured. Jewell took Davidson on the handle bars of his wheel and rode on into town, but when they reached Third street Rowe was already at the top of the Broadway hill, having walked up the incline. Jewell pushed his heavy load up the steep grade without a stop.

Rowe arrived at the Grand Opera House, the goal, having made the trip in 12 minutes. The two boys and their starter were covered with mud. The youngsters will try conclusions again tomorrow evening at 5:30 starting from Appel's grocery. A 16-year-old race is also being talked of.

TAKE WARNING.

Bicycle Riders, Young and Old, Make Note.

The ordinance says you must have bells attached to your wheels. The ordinance says that you must keep to the right, as the law directs. The ordinance says that you must not cross crossings or turn corners, at a greater speed than eight miles an hour. The ordinance directs all riders to go not faster than eight miles an hour in the Diamond. Watch out and keep your eyes open, oh ye riders, or you may be compelled to pay fines, which would not be a pleasant feature for you. The ordinance goes into effect August 6.

A LONG RIDE.

Wheelmen Start on a 1,200 Mile Trip.

C. H. Taylor, Alliance, J. B. Brennehan and R. E. Brennehan, Wellsville, and Dr. W. W. Sloan, this city, started this morning for a bicycle ride of 1,200 miles. They go to Cleveland, Detroit, Toronto, Chautauqua, Pittsburgh and a number of other places. Each member of the party is provided with a little card which informs the one who reads it that it is not enough, they are not dry, and they have read Tribby.

DUKE TOOK A DRIVE

In the City Vehicle a La Patrol Saturday.

FIVE DRUNKEN MEN ARRESTED

And Dozens That Were Not—An Arrest For Fast Driving—One Man Abused His Wife and Was Hit Real Hard by Somebody Else—Police News.

There were more drunken people in the city Saturday night than for months—the usual result of the first big pay after a loaf. Some of the victims were boisterous and were taken to city hall, but the majority behaved themselves. One man wearing white pants was seen lying on the pavement at the corner of Sixth and Franklin streets early yesterday morning, and two more reposed on the sidewalk further down the avenue.

John Smull was drunk on Jackson street between Sixth and Seventh and about 11:30 Chief Gill got him and Officer Earle took the patrol and between the two they removed Jonathan. He gave security for a fine of $6.75.

No sooner had the harness been hung in position at patrol headquarters than a call came from West Market street, and the two officers went to William Bashor's meat shop. Several young men had been making trouble, but they disappeared.

The patrol had a call earlier in the evening to Ravine street, where John Rose, a stonemason, was drunk and disorderly. He was caught by Officer Meador, and left security for $7.75.

James Carnes was arrested near the Horn switch for "fast and reckless driving." At least so the charge read, but he was fined $6.60 for drunkenness and released.

Joseph Miller was drunk and abusing his wife in an alley off Second street when a stranger whacked him on the head a few times and disappeared. Miller was arrested by Officer Meador and secured a fine of $6.60.

Bert Heiner was drunk and disorderly on Broadway when Officer Meador pinched him. He was fined $6.60, paid a portion and secured the balance.

In all the patrol was out five times Saturday. The first time it went to East End, as stated in the News Review. The second trip at 6 o'clock was also to East End after the same man, and they got him. Addison Duke, who abused his wife and escaped to the hills, returned. Officer Whan arrested him and called the patrol. Duke spent Sunday in jail. He pled not guilty and the trial was set for today. Duke moved here from Leetonia.

The hearing of the case this afternoon was decidedly amusing. The wife testified that Duke had trampled upon and torn his shirts because they were not done up as neatly as her father's. She admitted that she had sworn at him and repeated the operation in court. The couple jangled during the trial until the mayor advised them to live apart, and they had a dispute about their three-year-old child. The mayor finally dismissed the case.

THE EXTRA MAN.

Henry Deidrick Will Be the Assistant Patrolman.

Henry Deidrick went on today as regular patrolman, owing to Patrolman McMillan being disabled, but as soon as the latter returns to work he will assume a new role.

He will be the new night patrolman and line repairer and will be put on the force regularly as soon as council meets. This is the move, which as stated exclusively in the NEWS REVIEW last week has been contemplated for some time and allows Patrolman McMillan to leave the fire station as soon as his day is ended.

THE DIAMOND WAS CLEAN.

But the Flushing Idea Was Not a Flaming Success.

A number of the streets uptown were flushed Saturday night by Superintendent Morley and his assistants, but only in one place was there any success to speak of.

This was in the Diamond. In other places the water was merely turned on at the plugs, and the effect was noticed in the street in front of them only. The hose was used on the Diamond, hence it was clean. Superintendent Morley and force remained at work until 1 o'clock.

His House Burned.

J. B. Williams, gate tender at Walnut street, received word that his house in Salineville was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The building was valued at enough to make the loss severe for the owner. He is in Salineville today.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall St., N. Y.

TO SETTLERS' RESCUE

U. S. Troops on the March to the Jackson Hole Country.

ONLY ONE TRIBE INVOLVED.

This information received with much satisfaction by the authorities in Washington. The story of the massacre denied by Indian Agent Teter.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Dispatches received at army headquarters here from General Coppinger show that the force of cavalry ordered to Jackson's Hole, the scene of the Indian troubles in Wyoming, is making its way there and will probably reach the place by tomorrow night. In addition other troops have been ordered to Market Lake from Fort Russell, so as to be in readiness for active work should their services be required. No mention is made of further trouble, and with the known peaceable attitude of the Indians on the Washakie and Duschene reservations the situation is regarded as very much simplified.

General Coppinger's latest dispatch reads substantially as follows: "Major Chaffee's squadron of cavalry left Market Lake at 3 p. m., Saturday, and will probably reach Marysville (near Jackson's Hole), on Little Grove Tree lake, tomorrow night. Constant communication between the two points (Marysville and Market Lake), will be kept up by courier lines. Two Indians and the chiefs of the Shoshones and Bannocks from the Fort Hall reservation, left Market Lake, Saturday morning, to join Major Chaffee."

Another dispatch from General Coppinger states that the road to Marysville, except ten miles through Teton pass, is reported as good. Five companies of the Eighth infantry left Fort Russell Saturday afternoon to be held at Market Lake as a reserve force. The commanding officers at Fort Washakie, Wyo., and Fort Duschene, U. T., report that the Indians on their respective reservations are not involved in the present movement. Agent Teter of the Fort Hall reservation is enroute with the department commander to Marysville. The companies of the Eighth infantry reached Market Lake this morning.

The statement that the Indians on the Washakie and Fort Duschene reservations are not involved in the present movement, is regarded by the officers of the army as very important. The Shoshones are under the direction of the agent of the former reservation and the Utes under the agent of the latter, so that it is felt here that there will be no trouble experienced from them. This condition of affairs, it is believed here, makes the situation much easier to handle, for with but one tribe of Indians to deal with the uprising can be much more easily suppressed. There are now four troops of cavalry on their way to Marysville and five more will be at Market Lake today, which makes the available force all that it is hoped will be necessary to quell the disturbance.

According to Agent Teter of the Fort Hall, Idaho, reservation there is no truth in the report of the massacre of white settlers by Indians at Jackson's Hole.

Agent Teter's dispatch said that a courier had returned from Jackson's Hole to Market Lake, who reported that he was the last man out of Jackson's Hole and that when he left everything was quiet.

Messengers sent from the agency to the Bannocks have returned from Jackson's Hole and report that the Indians will not resist arrest.

Mr. Teter denies positively that the Indians kill game wantonly or wastefully, and says the white hunters and guides kill elk and use what they can at the moment and leave the rest to spoil. When the carcass is found the whites charge it to the Indians.

Up to July 14 he said that the constables had arrested one blind Indian and two papooses.

Three Boys Killed by a Train.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—John Gardner, a colored man, made a horrible find while walking on the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near Riverdale Park, a suburb of this city. Lying in the ditch in one heap were the mangled bodies of three boys, ranging in age from 10 to 14. They had evidently been run down by a train. The bodies were identified as those of J. Waters Blundon, son of J. U. Blundon, a prominent contractor and real estate broker of this city; Guy Brown, son of W. K. Brown of 2125 H street, and Charlie Lynch of Riverdale.

It Nullifies Hundreds of Divorces.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 29.—The suit to test the divorce granted by the probate judge of Oklahoma has been decided by the supreme court adversely to the judges and the divorcees, the court affirming its former decisions on the subject, denying the right of probate judges to grant divorces, and declaring all such null and void, and any subsequent marriages of the parties illegal. Hundreds of eastern people who have secured Oklahoma divorces from probate courts will be compelled to have their cases retried in the district courts.

TIGHT SUNDAY IN GOTHAM.

The Police Enforce the Excise Law by a Supreme Effort.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The police made a supreme effort to enforce the excise law Sunday, and to all appearance they realized their expectations almost to the letter. To all practical intent the law was so thoroughly enforced that not a saloon was open to the general public, and so fearful had the saloonkeepers become of the citizen spy that it was a difficult matter for even the initiated to get a drink at any place unless the proprietor or the man in charge was absolutely certain that no danger would follow the admission of the would-be customer in the shape of a summons to court.

It was considered a notable sign that no barroom fights were reported on the central offices ships from any precinct in this city after the strike of midnight which shut up the saloons on Saturday. The oldest man about police headquarters could recall no precedent for the lack of disorder. At the clubs also the excise law was to all appearances strictly observed.

At the hotels it was somewhat different, as the regular guests were supplied with all the refreshments they wanted at their regular meals. At the Fifth Avenue hotel the wants of the regular thirty Sunday patrons were attended to in parlor F, where a supply of biscuits was furnished with every order for a drink.

Vigilance Committee in Denver.

DENVER, July 29.—The citizens of South Denver have organized a vigilance committee, with the object of preventing the Denver Union Water company from shutting the water off from their premises for non-payment of their bills before rates are readjusted in accordance with the contract with the city. Similar action will probably be taken in other wards. The question of arranging rates will come up in the city council again this week.

A Too Zealous Collector Removed.

EL PASO, Tex., July 29.—The Mexican government has removed from office the collector of customs at Palomos, opposite Deming, N. M., and appointed Demas Floes collector at that port. The new collector at that port has rescinded the order issued by his predecessor for the confiscation of all American cattle found in the Palomos district after Aug. 2, 1895. The order was not authorized by the government.

Found a Pot of Gold.

FRANKLIN, Ind., July 29.—Barnie Sandefur of Jolity was told by a clairvoyant that he would find a pot of gold buried under a tree in his orchard under a stone marked by a turkey foot. Search was made, and after a few minutes' work a large iron box was uncovered full of gold coins. No theory is known for the presence of the box in the orchard.

Gatlings For Hawaiian Royalists.

TACOMA, Wash., July 29.—Six gatling guns, intended for the use of the Hawaiian royalists, are said to be enroute to Puget Sound from one of the eastern states. The Hawaiian government has sent a secret service agent, H. H. Allen, to watch for them. If the guns arrive Allen will notify the customs authorities and ask them to stop their shipment.

The Sea Serpent Again.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Captain Hatfield, Sergeant Horton and Corporal Miller of the United States army, landed at City Island today and stated that while they were cruising in the yacht Madge, off Eaton's Neck, early in the morning, they saw an extraordinarily large fish or sea serpent floundering in the water.

Bicycle Girl Complimented.

WICHITA, Kan., July 29.—Miss Inez Creditor, the young woman who saved a block of residences from a burning a few days ago by mounting a bike and going after the fire department personally, is receiving letters of congratulation from every quarter.

Kenrick Stripped of Property Rights.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—The long litigation against Archbishop Kenrick brought forth fruit when the aged prelate was divested of his property rights by Judge Russell of the circuit court, who conveyed them to Archbishop John J. Kain.

Judge Hoffman Dead.

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 29.—Hon. Henry W. Hoffman, associate judge of the Fourth judicial circuit of this state, has died, in his 60th year, at his residence in this city.

A number of young people from this city will attend a lawn fete to be given by the Christian Endeavor society of Smith's Ferry in front of the hotel there on Wednesday evening next.

A crowd of loafers at the corner of Sixth and Franklin street make themselves obnoxious, and several people have complained of being insulted when they passed. A few arrests would teach the loafers a lesson.

Arrangements are being made to extend the water mains up Lisbon street. The pipes will be laid to the top of the hill. This is what has long been needed, as there can now be a plug and fire protection in that section.

Red lights or some other sort of danger signal is badly needed at the east end of the Thompson pottery where the road is being widened. A team had a narrow escape there after getting tangled up in the rubbish last night.

Al Laughlin, who resides near Georgetown and is well known in this city, met with a severe accident Saturday while chopping wood. The ax slipped and split his foot for several inches. He will be disabled for several weeks.

The meeting of the general committee of Trades council on Labor Day celebration failed to materialize Saturday evening, and nothing was done. A meeting of the general committee and sub-committees is called for Wednesday evening next.

The East Liverpool boys who have been camping at Long Reach returned home Saturday night highly pleased with their outing and leaving many fair maidens in that section to contribute love letters to the incoming mail of the city for months to come.

Rev. Dr. Marshall and his wife will be tendered a reception in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church this evening. The doctor and his family have a warm place in the hearts of the citizens of East Liverpool, irrespective of denominational ties.

One of the patrol horses stepped on Patrolman McMillan's foot yesterday morning while he was caring for the team at central fire station. One toe was badly crushed and the patrolman is off duty today. Henry Deidrick is taking care of his work by doing double turn.

Visitors to Carroll county say the section near Salineville takes the medal for mean people. Someone didn't like Samuel Rickard, so one night last week they poisoned two of his finest cows. The next morning the owner found them dead in the field where he had left them.

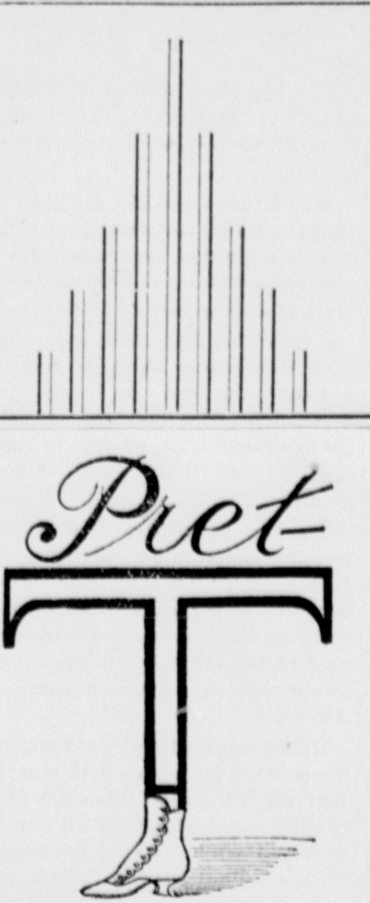

Will Price, of East End, returned Saturday night from Akron, where he has been working in the saugar shops of the china works. Work is so good at the plant and prospects so bright that he will ship his household goods to Akron tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Price left today for that place.

The untiered and unwashed are having a monkey and parrot time in politics. The better class of Democrats are disgusted with the pretensions of would-be leaders in East Liverpool, and are ridiculing the reports which were sent out by those in charge of the late so-called convention.

John D. Thomas, the Mt. Vernon, Ind., crippled newspaper man is going around the world on a tricycle and incidentally accumulating $500 on a wager: he left the city yesterday for Pittsburgh. While in Parkersburg, W. Va., Mr. Thomas collected money enough to buy a machine for a crippled street-seller who had not been on the streets for years.

Jerry, the Witless, terms the publisher of a local sheet "Jimmie the Jew." Phool Jerry must hold our Jewish citizens and business men at a very low standard. Possibly he intends to flatter Jimmie and intimate that the latter is a wide-awake, shrewd business man. There is no telling what Jerry does mean, and it is a question as to whether or not he has any original ideas.

The Salineville Banner says: "East Liverpool and Wellsville lawyers are taking a three-weeks' vacation. Salineville lawyers have no time to fool away in that way." Unless the Banner is badly off its trolley the Salineville lawyers can step down and out of the bar association. The rules are that no member shall work during the time set for vacation, and the offices are supposed to be closed. The Banner is evidently mistaken.

Persons desiring to combine recreation, entertainment, instruction and devotion with their summer outing will find Eagle Lake, on the Pennsylvania Lines, near Wassaw, Ind., the ideal spot. This pretty resort is the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, the youngest of the Chautauqua assemblies. The grounds have been well and favorably known as Spring Fountain Park. They constitute about two hundred acres of romantic woodland, stretching nearly two miles along the eastern shore of Eagle lake, a beautiful sheet of water. The grounds have been plotted and pretty cottages constitute the summer homes of persons who find health and rest-giving recreation in invigorating air and attractive surroundings. Some desirable cottage sites are yet obtainable. In addition to the portions laid out for building purposes, a fine park has been made. There is also a race track with overlooking amphitheater, furnishing splendid facilities for outdoor athletic sports. The large auditorium has a seating capacity of 3,000, and the several college halls are used for Assembly purposes. A good hotel, restaurant and supply stores furnish means of living at reasonable rates. A large fleet of row boats, with two steamers, will permit indulgence in boating, and persons fond of fishing may enjoy that pastime to satisfactory extent, as the lake teems with fish. The low tourist rates over the Pennsylvania Lines place these pleasures within easy reach. The rate will be in effect all season from ticket stations on these lines. In addition to the season tourist tickets, a low rate will also be in effect for round trip tickets, good in fifteen days. Ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Lines will furnish them, and they may be obtained from agents of connecting lines. The Assembly department opens July 1 and continues four weeks, during which time prominent speakers will discuss live topics. During August there will be educational work under President John M. Coulter, of Lake Forest university, in connection with the assembly. For details regarding rates of fare, time of trains, etc., apply to nearest Pennsylvania Line ticket agent, or address F. VAN DUSEN, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa. Applications for information concerning the resort should be addressed to Secretary E. S. Scott, Eagle Lake, Ind.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

A Large Audience at the First Presbyterian Church.

There was a large and deeply attentive audience present at the First Presbyterian church last night, to listen to short addresses made by delegates and representatives who had been in attendance at the late grand convention at Boston, Mass. Mr. Watkins read an interesting paper and was followed with a pleasing description of scenes and incidents of the convention by Mrs. J. C. Allison. Mr. W. A. Hill, one of the delegates, spoke on the subject of "what I did not see at the convention," telling of the immense crowds which prevented himself and friends from obtaining access to desirable meetings, where they longed to listen to the eloquence of speakers of world wide reputation.

Mr. Frank Croxall then made an interesting address in reference to Endeavor work and aggressiveness in Colorado, and gave a description of the warm and hearty welcome accorded Mrs. Croxall and himself by the Bostonians. He was followed by Rev. J. C. Taggart in one of his accustomed happy talks, in which he called for God's choicest blessings upon the work of the Endeavorers.

The pastor, Rev. Lee, was unavoidably detained at a meeting at another point and did not reach the church until the services were well under way. Rev. Marshall was master of ceremonies, and introduced the various speakers to the audience.

Dr. Lee made a brief closing address, speaking in warm terms of commendation of the work done by the Endeavorers in the past and present. He cited an incident connected with the Minneapolis convention, where the report was spread that members of the Christian Endeavor had been seen drinking and drunken in a prominent saloon in that city. Investigation demonstrated the fact that they were not Endeavorers, but had stolen badges or obtained them in some underhanded manner, and were thus endeavoring to bring shame and discredit upon the good cause. The reverend gentleman gave these cheats and swindlers the title of "devil endeavorers," and his hearers seemed to appreciate the idea that the term was a fitting one. Dr. Marshall closed the services with the benediction.

Dr. Marshall and his wife will be given a reception in the lecture room of the church tonight. You have a cordial invitation to be present.

Spring Grove.

Mark Simms, Steubenville, is a camp ground visitor.

George Dawson, of Ohioville, is visiting friends at the camp ground.

Mrs. Greene, of Lisbon, was a visitor at the Dunlap cottage on Sunday.

Miss Kaufman, Rochester, Pa., is a visitor at the Metch cottage.

The Misses Sebring have returned after a week's visit in Pittsburg.

Miss Jennie Lindsay, Hoboken, Pa., who has been the guest of Mrs. Frank Sebring, returned home today.

Some scoundrel has been chasing and scaring girls along the pathway leading from the street railway to the camp ground. He has been spotted and arrest will follow.

A local sheet, published somewhere in East Liverpool, gave base ball news from the camp ground, said news, if so it can be called, having occurred some weeks ago. How is that for journalistic enterprise?

There was a large attendance at the sermon yesterday morning. Doctor John, of Indianapolis, delivered an eloquent address, much to the gratification and delight of his hearers.

Services were held throughout the entire day; sunrise prayer meeting, class meeting, church services, morning, afternoon and night, with Sunday school in the afternoon.

Doctor John preached in the morning and again in the afternoon. Doctor Huston preached at night.

Services at the camp ground are controlled by standard time.

Epworth League day tomorrow. The early prayer service will be led by members of the League. At 10 a. m., sermon by Rev. J. W. Robins, Martin's Ferry. At 2 p. m., special League sermon by Presiding Elder Stewart. At 7 p. m., grand League rally and praise service. Sermon by Rev. D. W. Knight. All are invited.

Some Citizens Will Go.

The Second brigade of the National Guard of Pennsylvania will go into camp at Glencairn, 26 miles above Pittsburg, along the line of the Allegheny railroad, on Friday, Aug. 2. Camp duty proper will commence on the following morning. Some 3,500 guardsmen will be on duty. Among this number will be several former Liverpool residents who have removed to Pittsburg. A number of East Liverpool citizens have signified their intention of visiting this encampment. Glencairn is situated within halting distance of the live town of Freeport, and hotel accommodations are all that can be desired.

Killed the Dog.

While the patrol was in East End Saturday evening it ran over a dog belonging to John Young and killed it. The dog was valued by the owner as a pet.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Rev. Marshall addressed a large assembly of delighted hearers at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

Will Kinney and Mr. Hodgson occupied the pulpit of the First M. E. church yesterday, morning and evening respectively, and delivered pleasing and appropriate addresses.

A would-be journalist, engaged on a back alley back number, has, in a measure, entered the ranks of our wheelmen. He has 'em—wheels—in his head, and one of the numerous cogs slipped badly last Saturday. Selah.

The bicycle ordinance will be enforced. Bells must be attached to each vehicle, and said bells must be sounded, as per orders. Keep to the right, as the law directs. Indiscriminate racing must be stopped on our public streets. The law takes effect August 6.

Handsome copies of the bicycle ordinance have been issued at the News Review job office. They are just the feature for reference by all our wheelmen and can be carried in your vest pocket. They will be given to you upon application, free of charge. Note the handsome advertisements.

Witless Jerry was sadly mixed in his proof-reading and make-up department last week. His beer guzzling manager must have been indulging in hops to an extravagant degree. You can make betz that the fellow's occupation will be gone at the corner in the near future. The young blood of the weakly has no use for him. Selah.

Have we a health policeman, and does he receive a salary for duties unperformed? Does refuse vegetable matter thrown upon the streets come under his jurisdiction, or is the street commissioner responsible for the removal of such objectionable matter, laden with the germs of disease and death? There are some thoroughfares in our city which are literally a shame and disgrace to any civilized community. Remove the filth and punish those who are responsible for the same.

A local sheet, advocates the idea of cleaning our streets and alleys through the instrumentality of flushing the same with water. Any measure that will cleanse or purify will be acceptable, when one takes into consideration the dirt and filth which prevails around and about our highways and byways; but flushing has been fully tested in other cities and has proved a miserable failure. Old foggy ideas should be relegated to oblivion. They are on a par with the ideas usually promulgated by the unreliable and untrustworthy local sheet referred to.

RAMBLER.

Make Them Welcome.

East Liverpool churches and the members thereof should learn the lesson that great good can often be accomplished by extending the hand of welcome to strangers, while a corresponding amount of evil may ensue by treating the stranger in your gates with coldness or unconcern. Two ladies, strangers in East Liverpool, but warm and earnest workers in the cause of Christianity, visited the church of their choice in East Liverpool a few nights since. They listened to an able sermon eloquently delivered. But, sad to say, no usher pointed out to them a seat, and no hand was extended to them in welcome. They came to the church unnoticed and unwelcomed, and they quietly took their departure, edited by the sermon, but sad at heart over the lack of warm Christian sympathy and fellowship.

Have Heard of the School.

Superintendent Sanor returned this morning from Salt Lake City where he has spent six weeks with friends. He likes the country and admires the climate. The prosperity of the people is marked, and the fertility of the soil caused the professor to wonder. While away he learned that East Liverpool is well known, and many traveling men met during the journey asked him about the new school building. They had seen it or heard people who had been here talk.

Reverend Cooper Here.

Rev. H. A. Cooper, who formerly served as pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will address the Endeavor society in East End this evening on the Boston convention. Other churches have been invited.

A Rough Ride.

Tom Porter and Frank Risinger rode to Beaver Falls yesterday. They had a breakdown and were covered with mud when they returned after dark last night. Punctures were too numerous to mention.

Home From Camp.

The camping party came in from Fernwood this morning, and will be entertained at the residence of Col. John N. Taylor this evening.

Judgment For Metch.

In the court of Squire Morley today C. Metch was given judgment against Mrs. Mary Coburn for $19.04, balance on account.

HARVEY-HORR DEBATE.

Horrr Argues on Prosperity and Harvey on the Prices of Wheat.

CHICAGO, July 29.—The last day, but one of the Harvey-Horrr silver contention began Saturday afternoon. Mr. Horrr opened the day's talk with a comparison of the wages and the cost of products during the years from 1860 to 1890, as shown in a table prepared by Statistician Carroll D. Wright. With wages and prices in 1860 taken as the index or 100, it showed that in 1890, prices were 92 wages 159, and the purchasing power of wages 172. Mr. Horrr proceeded to argue that at no time in the history of the nation was the country as prosperous as it was at that time, in spite of the "crime of 1873."

Mr. Harvey in turn took up the matter of the prices of wheat for a series of years in reply to Mr. Horrr's statement of Thursday, that the farmer had received as much for his product in gold as he had received before silver was demonetized. For answer, he quoted the price from year to year. He declared that the arguments of Mr. Horrr were those which had been used in all time to bulwark tyranny. The declaration of independence was the proper answer to such arguments.

The rest of the day was devoted to arguments pro and con as to whether banks are beneficial or not, Mr. Horrr holding they are, and Mr. Harvey the reverse.

The Weather.

Fair; warmer; variable winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS

R. Suydam Palmer's schooner yacht Yampa, which capsized in the drydock at Fay's yard, Southampton, England, on July 12, killing one man, has been righted, and is now being repaired. Mr. Palmer gave $1,000 to the family of the seaman killed.

Lady Henry Somerset and Miss Frances E. Willard, in a written statement, say: "It is not true that we have been re-buffed by the English government in our attempt to present the polyglot petition, as stated in American papers. We have not approached the government at all."

Ina Donna Coolbrith, who is known to magazine readers both in America and England as a writer of short poems, is dying at her home in Oakland, Cal., of peritonitis.

The Bethel Presbyterian church in course of erection at Peoria, Ill., was blown down by the wind.

A rainstorm of severity unequalled before broke telegraph wires, injured buildings, blew down corn and twisted off trees two feet in diameter at Minonk, Illinois.

The Helen Rickmers and Marcepal Sunset went aground in a hurricane on the coast of Najarabi, Japan.

There is no truth in the reports that the sons of Captain General Campos were wounded in the charge which the former led against the Cuban insurgents at the battle of Valenzuela.

An exposition of California products, especially preserves and wines, is in progress in Berlin. A Hamburg firm will open 400 branch stores in Europe for the sale of the products of the Pacific coast.

The United States ambassador at Berlin, Hon. Theodore Runyon, is on his vacation, and is not expected back to that city until August.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Doctor McVoy is visiting at his home in Liberty, Pa.

—J. H. Brookes and mother left this morning for a visit in Kentucky.

—Miss Kirt Fowler, of Canfield, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fowler, Sixth street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Grant, of East End, returned Saturday evening from a visit with Carroll county relatives.

—John Worcester, of the News Review job rooms, returned Saturday night from a two weeks visit with relatives in Akron.

Waterproof collars and cuffs that will not wilt, are not effected by moisture and look just like linen are all the fashion now. They are made by covering a linen collar or cuff with "celluloid" and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining, consequently the only ones that will stand wear and give perfect satisfaction. Try them and you will never regret it. Always neat, and easily cleaned. When soiled simply wipe off with a wet cloth or sponge. Every piece of the genuine is stamped as follows:

Ask for those so marked and refuse any imitations, as they cannot possibly please you. If your dealer does not keep them, we will send a sample direct on receipt of price. Collars 25c each. Cuffs 50c pair. State size and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

Spaniards Had Planned a Massacre of Rebel Prisoners.

A C. S. CRUISER PREVENTED IT.

Sanguinely Appealed to the Secretary of State After Receiving a Letter From His Imprisoned Brother—Campos Badly Whipped in the Recent Battle.

TAMPA, Fla., July 29.—Passengers arriving by the Plant steamship from Cuba state that in the battle at Valenzuela, Campos' force numbered 1,600 and the insurgents 2,500. By the vigilance of the Spanish advance pickets the Spanish troops were not led into the Cuban strongholds, but sheered off into a plain, where the forces met.

GENERAL DE CAMPOS.

The insurgents killed all the Spanish horses in order to capture what provisions, arms and ammunition they bore and to cut off Campos' escape.

Two mounted pickets arriving, they gave their mounts to Campos and a companion, who reached Bayamo at 2 o'clock in the morning. The insurgent losses were between 80 and 100, while the Spanish loss is said to have been more than 700. In this engagement, Lala Beniz had 300 men under his command, of which but 25 survived. General Maximo Gomez' headquarters are now at Nejasa, which is of easy access to a number of principal cities. Colonel Mirabel, commanding 600 men, hovers between Puerto Principe and Neuvitas, intercepting all provisions and live stock. He also tears up the rails and otherwise destroys the railroad.

It is said that Spaniards in Havana desire Campos to institute a reign of terror by slaughtering Cubans indiscriminately. They do not want him to be conservative. About the 20th a small bill was circulated in Havana urging that in the review on the 24th, which was the queen's birthday, the proper action would be to visit the Cabanas prison and get Sanguilly, Aguirre and Gomez to put a rope around their necks and drag them through the streets. The United States cruiser Atlanta, arriving there on the morning of the 23d, caused a suspension of the outrage. The review did not occur. Manuel Sanguilly, now in New York, received a letter from his imprisoned brother advising him of the contemplated move, and Manuel Sanguilly at once notified the secretary of state. The departure of the Atlanta from Key West immediately followed.

A Philadelphia special says: By Tuesday or Wednesday of this week there will be in Cuban waters the largest expedition from this country that has yet left. The ship is fitted out as a war vessel.

Long Walk For a Pension.

SHAMOKIN, July 29.—Being unable to longer keep the wolf from his door Peter W. Miller, an aged and disabled veteran of the late rebellion, made the journey to Washington on foot, and after having shown Pension Commissioner Lochren the scars from wounds received in battle succeeded in having his pension of $8 per month restored. The tramp was a hard one for the poor old soldier, but officials of the pension

Another Holmes Victim.

LITTLE ROCK, July 29.—It is probable that John C. Allen, alias John H. Caldwell, the associate of insurance swindler H. H. Holmes, who is serving a 15-year sentence in the pen here for horse stealing, may be the means of fixing upon Holmes the responsibility for the murder of Milford Cole, a wealthy Baltimorean. Cole came here last spring as the representative of a Baltimore lumber syndicate. He became interested with Holmes at Fort Worth in business schemes. He was summoned to Chicago by Holmes and hasn't been heard of since.

Mounted Skeletons for Holmes.

CHICAGO, July 29.—A man has been secured by the police who told them that he had mounted three skeletons for Holmes, and that the skeletons were from bodies taken from the house of Holmes in sixty-third street. One of these, he said, was the body of a man and the other two were women.

Sunday Newsboys Must Be Quiet.

Bull Nearly Kills Two Men.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., July 29.—A bull on the farm of Mike Hall, in the town of Eagle Point, has nearly killed two men. A farm hand while at work was attacked by the animal and thrown five feet into the air. When he struck the ground the bull gored and pawed him horribly. Harry Hall went to his assistance with a pitchfork and the animal turned on him, and before assistance arrived the bull had nearly killed young Hall also.

A Leading Physician Dead.

ALTOONA, Pa., July 29.—Dr. J. Wesley Allen, the leading homoeopathic physician of this city, has died after a brief illness. He was 57 years old. Dr. Allen was surgeon of the One Hundred and Forty-eighth Pennsylvania volunteers during the late war, and while holding that position amputated ex-Governor Beaver's leg.
